

There's a heart
in every Locket

Locketts are always in style. They are needed to carry the small but priceless treasures of the heart. One thing only is necessary if you would make your locket of real value: Look for the little W. & H. Co. "heart" trade-mark stamped on the inside. It guarantees not only durability, but correctness of design.

A large number were present and greatly enjoyed the musical and literary program given. To the strains of a lively march played by Mrs. Leininger, the two couples escorted by representatives of the lodge marched to the front of the hall where they were greeted in a most cordial manner by all present. After the program, presents were presented to both couples by the lodge as was also a gift from the girls' drill team to their captain. The hall and banquet room were beautifully decorated with the lodge colors and carnations and ferns. The evening was another of the splendid social features of the Yeomen of North Platte.

Nominate Gibbs.

Both the republicans and the democrats held mass conventions Tuesday evening and each nominated George N. Gibbs for city magistrate. This position is a new one for North Platte, and comes to us through our passing into a city of the second class. The duties are similar to that of police judge, which office it usurps, but the magistrate is given jurisdiction three miles outside the city limits, while the police judge has jurisdiction only within the city.
